JUNE HIGHLIGHTS

Huayucaltia

Saturday June 1 • 8:30pm

Huayucaltia's five members are all accomplished multi-instrumentalists who take their inspiration from jazz, traditional Latin-American folk music and Nueva Canción. They combine Latin American flutes, strings and percussion, with keyboards and synthesizers—the resulting music has a powerful message and a shimmering beauty.

Diata-Diata

Congolese Music and Drumming

Malonga Casquelourd of Fua Dia Congo presents the female drumming ensemble Diata-Diata. An evening of Congolese song, music, drumming, and dance.

Hatsegana

Sunday June 9 • 7:30pm

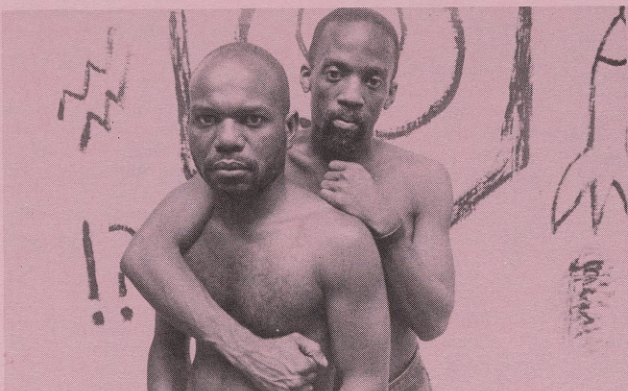

A concert and folk dance party. Program features live traditional folk and gypsy music from Eastern Europe. The first set will be a concert. Second set will be a dance party with Balkan favorites old and new, and a hot new electric dance set.

Vietnamese Traditional Music

Thursday June 13 • 7:30pm

Ngoc Lam and Que Lam have performed regularly around the Bay Area and recently performed at the Festival of the Lake. Their music comes from the Vietnamese theater and traditional folk songs based on the pentatonic scale common throughout Asia. The dan tranh is the Vietnamese version of the Chinese zither a 16 stringed instrument similar to the koto found in Japan. They will be joined by Bui Huu Nhut who plays the one string monochord dan bao.

Video: Tongues Untied

Wednesday June 26 • 7:30pm

June is Lesbian and Gay Freedom Month! La Peña celebrates the contributions of gays and lesbians in the movement for social change.

Tribute to Judith Justiz

Sunday June 30 • 7:30pm

Celebrate Judith Justiz' 10 years of Afro-Cuban dancing in the Bay Area with a performance featuring Judith and her troupe, Raices Afrocubanas.

Since 1975 more than 400 community groups have used our facilities. The use of our space by these organizations does not mean that La Peña endorses the views presented. La Peña feels that it is important to help stimulate an environment conducive to discussion and understanding among different peoples.

La Peña Cultural Center Presents

"Brenda Wong Aoki lights up the stage with her every appearance . . ."
San Francisco Chronicle

Brenda Wong Aoki

in her acclaimed
"Obake! Stories of the Spirits Past & Present"

Aoki spins tales of traditional Japanese legends and contemporary stories through her unique movement and song rooted in the traditional Japanese theater – Noh and kyogen.

"Narita has found an equilibrium between rage and humor, while burning cultural stereotypes on a celebratory pyre."
LA Times

Jude Narita

in her award-winning
"Coming into Passion Song for a Sansei"

LA Critic's Circle Award Winner

Actress/writer Narita blends humor and drama to offer a stirring and provocative look at a variety of contemporary women from a street-tough Japanese-American teenager to a Filipino mail-order bride.
